Breaking the Chains

As we prepare to set out for this summer ministry tour, our hearts are stirred for what's ahead and what the Lord is getting ready to do. If you're alive and breathing in America and around the world, it's not hard to see the great need for a Savior in these last days. The grip the enemy has on people is so evident. The ball and chain is almost visible. More than ever before, we want to make our lives count and reach out with everything the Lord has gifted and equipped us with to help others break the chains of spiritual bondage. The world needs to know that JESUS is the answer and in Him alone shall we be saved. Romans 6:23 The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. The word gift stands out in that verse. Webster's dictionary defines gift as, "That which is given or bestowed without charge." God wants to give us a gift; His Gift. His only begotten Son Jesus Christ the Lord. For various reasons people don't accept this gift. They think they're just not good enough or they don't think they even need or want it at all. But Jesus said, "Our righteousness is as dirty rags." Will you receive His gift? There are all kinds of chains that keep us from living out the plans the Lord intended for us: unforgiveness, anger, depression, jealousy, fear, anxiety, and on it goes.

Greg

Lord today I pray for those that need to say, "YES, this is me that I just read about. I want to receive the Gift God has for me. Jesus I want to receive You into my heart. Break away the chains and set me free. Amen"

MAKING AN IMPACT IN GOD'S KINGDOM

James 1:2-5: "My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. Let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect, complete, lacking nothing."

Richie and I have been thankful for the growth that God is doing in us. Our little Caleb is growing so fast! He has been a blast! He just turned 1, July 25th! We couldn't imagine life without him!

We have felt God leading us into a new avenue of ministry. We are now full time staff with Blastoff Music Ministry. Through this change we have experienced different obstacles involving pride, envy and confusion. God has truly been challenging our faith in Him and through this time of testing we are learning to persevere, pray through and as the Bible says, to count it all joy!

If you are facing situations that challenge your faith, remember to always be thankful, even at the time you don't feel like it because God is working on your behalf. God will and is doing some great things! Jesus is coming soon and our time here on earth is very short. What are you going to do with the gift God has given you?

Richie, Michelle and Caleb

Hey Guys,
I'm so excited to start traveling more. It's going to be a great experience to see people change their hearts for God. I can't wait to go minister and be a part of my family's ministry.
We couldn't do it without you guys! Thank you so much. You know it's amazing what God can do! On our trip to Vietnam last year, I saw orphans who couldn't speak a word of English singing English songs. I also saw deaf kids dancing to music that they couldn't hear! I can't wait to go back in October!
Thank you for all you do!
God bless, Anna C. Bostock

Watch and See What I Will Do

Our world today calls us crazy for the journey of full time ministry we're engaging in. The prices of diesel, the slowing economy, and the fact that we're not getting any younger have all been commented in half jest, half seriousness. As faith meets practical reasoning we must look at the confirmations and listen close to what God has to say about it all. His calling and confirmations have been undeniable and not possible for man to manufacture. So we have been obedient and are in awe at what He's already doing.

Just before we started this tour, I was in my Bible reading in the book of Numbers. Most of us would love to skip over this book, not being too interested in chapters that count how many people belonged to each clan, but Numbers is an awesome book! In chapter 11 the people are mumbling and complaining about not having meat and being tired of manna. God promised to send meat that would be so much that they would be sick of it. Moses was concerned that to feed the people for as long as God had promised would use up their livestock. But God's plans are so much higher and He's certainly not stuck in the boxes we create for Him. I love what God says to the practical reasoning Moses had. God said, "Is my arm too short? Watch and see what I will do!" He then caused a great wind to blow quail in from the sea. They flew just two to three feet off the ground so that the people caught bushels of them. God's ways are not our ways and His thoughts are not our thoughts. They are so much higher and He says to you too, "Watch and see what I will do!" Glenda

Signs From Heaven

In 2002, Michelle and I were enrolled in a discipleship program called Master's Commission that was held in a church in Desoto, Texas. Sixteen students studied in-depth Bible courses, human videos, youth ministry, ministry to the elderly and the homeless. We traveled the country telling others about Christ. When we were back home at our church in Desoto, I attended a Sunday School class that taught Sign Language. I was drawn by this beautiful art.

It is 2008 now and God has magnified my desire for Sign Language and caused it to blossom. I have been able to travel with my family and bring others into the heart of worship through Sign.

With the help of the Holy Spirit working through my dad on the video camera and creativity in editing, Jer developing creative design for my cover and my mom the creative mind behind the scenes. I am overjoyed to present my first Sign Language DVD called "Signs From Heaven."

I thank the Lord for blessing me to do this DVD and I hope it will bless you all as well. To further my education, I'm going to take a college course on American Sign Language. Lord willing, I'll achieve my goal to become an Interpreter.

Proverbs 3:5-6 (Message)
Trust God from the bottom of your heart; don't try to figure out everything.

Thank you all for your encouragement.
God Bless,
Rachael Bostock
